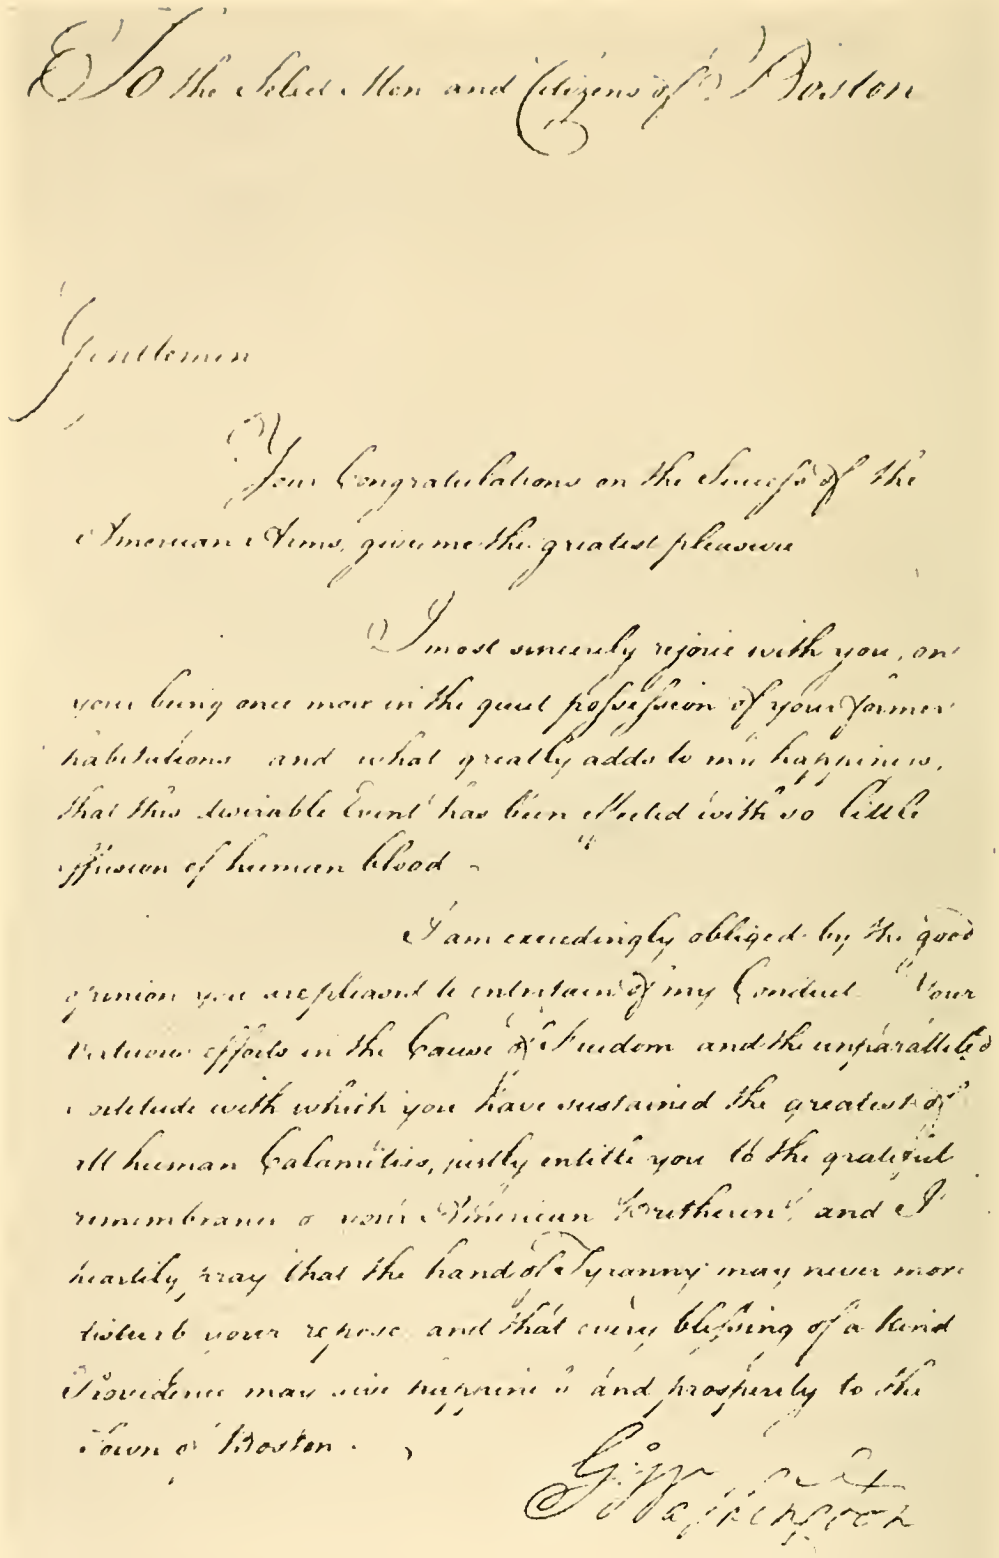
GEORGE WASHINGTON
BICENTENNIAL EDITION

THE WRITINGS OF GEORGE WASHINGTON



To the Select Men and Citizens of Boston

Gentlemen

Your Congratulations on the Success of the American Arms, give me the greatest pleasure

I most sincerely rejoice with you, on your being once more in the quiet possession of your former habitations — and what greatly adds to my happiness, that this desirable Event has been effected with so little effusion of human blood —

I am exceedingly obliged by the good opinion you are pleased to entertain of my Conduct — Your patriotic efforts in the Cause of Freedom and the unparalleled fortitude with which you have sustained the greatest of all human Calamities, justly entitle you to the grateful remembrance of your American Brethren — and I heartily pray that the hand of Tyranny may never more disturb your repose and that every blessing of a kind Providence may rest happily and prosperously on the Town of Boston —

Answer to the Congratulations of the Boston Selectmen on the British Evacuation, March or April, 1776

[1] The names of the persons, to whom the letters were written, are grouped alphabetically. The date of each letter is given, with the reference to volume and page where it is to be found. Such letters and addresses as were addressed to the officer and not the individual are so entered. The half dozen, or so, letters whose addresses could not be identified will be found at the end of this list. The smaller type points to the letters printed in footnotes, because of their minor importance.
